

ReStart Press Release:

Announcing the Annual ReStart Career Conference

What: The Annual ReStart Career Conference

When: Saturday, September 29, 2018 7:30 AM to 3:30 PM

Where: Seacoast Church; 750 Longpoint Road; Mt. Pleasant, SC 29464

About the Conference: The ReStart Career Conference is a free educational conference for individuals seeking career transition or a new career direction. Participants are taught Professional career identification, transition and networking tools and a supportive community as they seek fulfilling work toward a life on purpose.

Participants Will Learn:

- The gifts they possess and where best to deploy them;
- How to Process Change such as job change or loss;
- How to Pursue Fulfilling Life Work That Fits into a greater Life Purpose;
- Resume Writing Techniques;
- How to confidently approach professional interactions, such as Including Interviews; and,
- How to network with others for professional success.

This day-long event will be comprised of large group sessions and smaller workshops, with workshop leaders who are Human Resource professionals, former CEOs from the local community, and consultants with a broad range of experience and skills.

Following the conference, participants will have the opportunity to connect with others in career transition in their geographic area, in a structured and confidential environment. These smaller community groups are also facilitated by Restart Leadership. Participants will be able to benefit from job leads, groups support, networking opportunities, and continued study/application of the conference skills and topics.

About ReStart

The ReStart ministry focuses on imparting both life skills and career transition wisdom, within the broader goals of discovering one's purpose and making a difference. We provide professional tools (such as personal evaluations, resume instruction, and networking strategies) to those who want to align their careers with their life purpose. We also connect those in career transition with others on the same journey to provide community and support.
